

“To get the most out of this live Teleseminar print out this handout so you can take notes on the ideas and tools we will share with you.”

Rick and Leisa Olson
F.U.S.E. Family Coaches

Your Important Teleseminar Dial-In Details

Date: Thursday March 25, 2010

Time : 7:00pm (Mountain) / 9:00pm (Eastern)

Dial In: 1- 218 – 862 – 1300 access code 691432

Duration: 1 hour (approximately)

Focus: Ask us your question that you have about parenting.

Tips to Get the Most Out of This Training

1. Print out this handout so you can take notes during this teleseminar.
2. Think of how to quickly implement the ideas we share with you tonight.
3. Make a deadline to complete at least 3 tips shared during the teleseminar.

SPECIAL NOTE: This teleseminar will start promptly at 7:00pm MST/ 9:00pm EST so please dial in 5 to 7 minutes early so you won't miss any content. You'll be glad you did 😊

WHY is it important for parents to ask questions about parenting?

WHAT are some of the major concerns parents have about parenting?

HOW do I know if I am moving in the right direction as a parent?

What are the keys to maintaining balance and separation between work and parenting when you work from home?

How do you stop snicking, sneaking treats in your home?

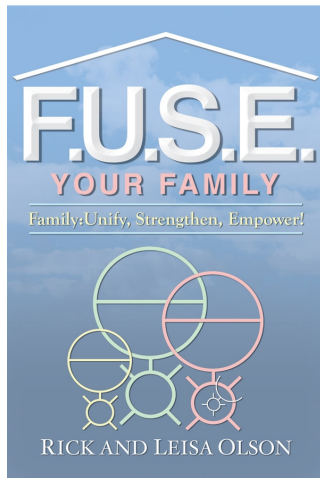

What about teenagers who are unwilling to obey the bedtime schedule?

What are some peaceful solutions to a not quite 2 year old who has started hitting and screaming when he does not get his way?

We have just moved to a new city and our thirteen year old is not happy about the situation especially having to attend a new school.

WHAT if there was a 'Parenting Manual', and you had one, what would your family life be like?

Free Bonus Gifts

The Introduction and
Chapter 1 of our book.

Introduction and Week 1 lesson of
F.U.S.E. a Home

Four short videos from our FAMILY 5 FIRST series

Interview with Kirsten Nelson from www.60secondparenting.com

Recorded Teleseminars: Ask Rick and Leisa & Tell Rick and Leisa

www.FUSEFamilyFocus.com

Thank you for attending our Teleseminar